* The subscription fee for the tariff package is charged only if there are transactions on the Client's account during a calendar month. If there are no transactions on the account during a calendar month, the subscription fee is not charged. The subscription fee is debited in the month following the month in which the account transactions were made. The date of activation of the tariff package and the date of debiting the subscription fee do not affect the calculation of the number of free payments. The number of free payments is determined solely within the relevant calendar month.

 Only transfer transactions in the national currency processed through the Freedom Online remote banking system are included in the free payment limit. Such transactions are counted from the 1st day through the last day of the calendar month, inclusive. At the beginning of each new calendar month, the free payment limit is reset. If the tariff package is activated after the 1st day of a calendar month, the calculation of the number of free payments includes payments made by the Client from the beginning of the calendar month up to the date of activation of the tariff package.

The tariff package applies to new clients opening a bank account through the Bank's remote channels or branch network. If the number of transactions or the transaction execution time included in the tariff package is exceeded, the respective transactions shall be charged in accordance with the Bank's standard tariffs published at: https://bankffin.kz/ru/docs.
